

Action for M.E. – Website Links Policy

Introduction

The Action for M.E. website aims to provide useful information to people with M.E., their carers and healthcare professionals. We will only link to other websites that fulfil one or more of the following criteria:

Criteria

- organisations providing information and support on :
 - M.E./CFS
 - other relevant medical conditions
 - discrimination and legal rights
- M.E. support groups
- relevant UK government sites and public sector organisations
- we may also provide links to
 - our corporate and organisational fundraising partners and individual supporters
 - sites promoting charity sector initiatives
 - other official Action for M.E. sites
 - sites providing useful information on guidelines for healthy living
 - commercial organisations working in partnership with Action for M.E.
- where an organisation has regional or local services we will only link to their main website

In addition:

- we will not knowingly link to any commercial site except those of our corporate and organisational fundraising partners
- we will not link to individual personal websites except as part of specific fundraising and campaigning initiatives
- we will not knowingly link to websites that contain illegal, offensive or misleading information
- we will not link to sites providing inaccurate, unproven or misleading information

Please note that we are not responsible for the content of any site to which we are linked, nor should a link be seen as an endorsement of the content, or association with the operator.

If you have concerns about the content of any linked website or a website associating itself with Action for M.E. please contact us at admin@afme.org.uk

To request a link

If you would like to request a link from our website to your website, please email admin@afme.org.uk. All requests will be considered and you will only be contacted if permission is granted. We will not enter into any correspondence or discussion regarding our decision.

- we reserve the right to request the removal of any link
- a link to the Action for M.E. website may not be used to imply endorsement of a third-party site, product or service

- your site must not conflict with the aims of Action for M.E.

Please note that the Action for M.E. ME logo and Charity Number may not be used without prior written permission.
